

The Gobiid Fauna of Macaronesia
 Compiled by: James Van Tassell & Peter Wirtz
 Update version 5 Jan 2015

Species	Canary Islands	Azores	Madeira
Chromogobius britoi	Present		Present
Crystallogobius linearis			Present
Didogobius helenae	Present
Didogobius kochi	Present
Gnatholepis thompsoni	Present 		Present
Gobius fallax
Gobius gasteveni	Present		Present
Gobius niger	Common
Gobius paganellus	Common	Present	Common
Gobius roulei	Rare
Gobius xanthocephalus	Common
Lesueurigobius heterofasciatus	Rare		Rare
Lesueurigobius suerii	Rare		Rare
Mauligobius maderensis	Common		Common
Pomatoschistus microps	Present
Pomatoschistus pictus	Present	Present	Present
Thorogobius ephippiatus	Present	Present	Present
Vanneaugobius canariensis	Present		Present
Vanneaugobius pruvoti	Present
Lebetus guilleti	??
Lebetus scorpioides	Rare		Rare

** New record for the Canary Islands; observed by J. Van Tassell on Gran Canaria and Lanzarote, Oct. 2000; also observed on Tenerife by A. Brito and Gomera by S. Scott.